Do not distort the form of the logo by reshaping it to fit the logo in a certain area. Scale the logo keeping the proportions right.

4.3.2. Başak Ekolojik Logo Usage Rules

Başak Ekolojik organic production logo is required to be used on products and packages that are inspected and certified by Başak Ekolojik in accordance with the provisions of the Turkish Regulation on the Principles and Implementation of Organic Agriculture. Products that do not have the logo on it cannot be organically presented to the domestic market, cannot be advertised or promoted, or apply for a patent with their abbreviations.

Başak Ekolojik logo is not among the mandatory phrases on the label according to the EU Organic Production Regulation. However, in case of use, all rules in this instruction must be followed.

When used on the product, it should be used in a way that does not cause false evaluations. The logo is made available to the raw materials, semi-finished or finished organic production materials produced in accordance with the provisions of the relevant Regulation by the authorized control body. Başak Ekolojik and organic production logo is used, which is determined according to the quality of production, size and type of packaging. Before using this logo, the operators will officially apply to Başak Ekolojik with a label draft (graphic work, sample, picture, etc.) that visually defines the place to be used for each different usage. The operator must use the Başak Ekolojik Logo in accordance with the authorization given to it, provided that it complies with the usage principles. It must obtain permission to use its certificate and Başak Ekolojik's logo in its own advertising campaigns, correspondence, brochures, web pages and agreements. Labels to be used must be approved by Başak Ekolojik before.

Where Başak Ekolojik logo is used, the clients/operators must meet the following conditions:

- ✓ Başak Ekolojik logo can be used by operators that have been successful in the audits carried out by us and whose certificate is still valid.
- ✓ Başak Ekolojik logo and certificate can only be used on the product packaging inspected, for the operator and the production area. The product, which is not covered by the document, cannot be used by other operators.
- ✓ A sample of the logo is sent by Başak Ekolojik to the operators that have been awarded the Certificate. No changes can be made to the submitted logo other than the permitted size.
- ✓ It can be used for commercial purposes, advertising or promotional purposes without making any changes on the document, content or format, by declaring that the product is produced in accordance with the EU Organic Production Regulation or Turkish Regulation on the Principles and Implementation of Organic Agriculture.

- ✓ Logo should always be used with Başak Ekolojik reference
- ✓ Logo and documents cannot be used in a way that means that Başak Ekolojik is solely responsible for the compliance of the product and related activities.
- ✓ Operators,
 - In line with the S-P01.01 Organic Production Control and Certification Service Agreement; in case of suspension of certification, a text containing reference to the certification in processes such as labeling of products within the scope of the document, advertising, etc. cannot use it until the suspension of the certification is lifted, and,
 - The operator shall cease the use of the Başak Ekolojik logo and certificate in the event that the agreement s/he has signed is terminated, expired, withdrawn and in the products that are no longer included in the scope of certification; s/he accepts that the document and promotional material that refers to the document and includes the logo will be withdrawn from use, and that the logo prints including the certificate will be returned.
 - T-P01.02 Instruction on the use of Certificate and Logo is respected for the implementations in the use of documents and signs in case the agreement is terminated, the certificate is suspended, withdrawn, and scope is narrowed during the certification process.
- ✓ All legal rights belong to Başak Ekolojik in cases where it is noticed that the Logo and the document are used in a misleading, inappropriate way or without permission during the audits or in different environments. In these cases, depending on the severity of the non-compliance, suspension and withdrawal of the certificate are applied.
- ✓ Every operator with whom Başak Ekolojik has a commercial relationship is deemed to have accepted the legal conditions set forth in this instruction.

4.4 Turkish Accreditation Agency (TÜRKAK) Mark Usage Rules

The Operator may use the Product and Ministry Logo in accordance with the relevant Regulation, and the Accreditation Body Logo within the framework of the relevant institution's instructions on this matter. TÜRKAK accreditation mark should be used in the format, size and color described in detail in the document "R.10.06 Conditions for the Use of TÜRKAK Accreditation Mark by Organizations Accredited by TÜRKAK" located at <https://asist.turkak.org.tr> <https://asist.turkak.org.tr/tr/QMS/QMSDocumentsList>.

- TÜRKAK logo can not be used alone without the Başak Ekolojik mark.
- Logos should be used in proportionate sizes.
- Any of the logos should not be more dominant or in the background than the other in terms of color and size.
- TÜRKAK accreditation mark can be used in stationery, advertisement, promotion and similar materials, but it must be on the printed document together with Başak Ekolojik's logo or name. It should not be more dominant than Başak Ekolojik logo or name.
- TÜRKAK Accreditation Mark should not be used in a way that may cause misunderstanding about the status of Başak Ekolojik.
